This policy should be read alongside the following other school policies:

- Behaviour
- E-Safety
- Safer Recruitment
- Staff Code of Conduct
- Whistleblowing

In addition all staff will have read and understood Part 1 of the latest version of Keeping Children Safe in Education:

https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/591903/CSE_Guidance_Core_Document_13.02.2017.pdf

1. Introduction

What is safeguarding?

- Safeguarding can be defined by promoting the health, safety and welfare of all students.
- Safeguarding is the responsibility of all adults, especially those working or volunteering with children. St Edmund's Girls' School aims to help protect the children in its care by working consistently and appropriately with all relevant agencies to reduce risk and promote the welfare of children.
- Staff are advised to maintain an attitude of 'it could happen here' as far as safeguarding is concerned, and should always act in the best interest of the child.

What is child protection?

- Child protection is a part of safeguarding and promoting welfare. This refers to the activity which is undertaken to protect specific children who are suffering, or at risk of suffering, significant harm.

St Edmund's Girls' School staff will follow the child protection procedures set out by the Wiltshire Safeguarding Children Board and will have regard to statutory guidance issued by the Department for Education Keeping Children Safe in Education, 2016.

St Edmund's Girls' School has a nominated governor to take leadership responsibility for St Edmund's Girls' School's safeguarding arrangements.

The role of the Nominated Governor is outlined in Appendix 1.

St Edmund's Governing Board has appointed members of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) to the roles of Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) and Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead (DDSL) for child protection and safeguarding.

During school days, in term time, the DSL and/or a DDSL should always be available during school hours for staff in St Edmund's Girls' School to discuss any safeguarding concerns.

The role of the Designated Safeguarding Lead is outlined in Appendix 2.

2. Safeguarding information for students

Students in our schools may talk to:

Staff identified at the beginning of this policy, especially the DSL and DDSLs

Any member of staff the student trusts to talk to; in line with the DfE Information Sharing publication and this policy.

3. What constitutes child abuse and neglect?

All adults who work or volunteer with children should be able to identify concerns about child abuse.

Main categories of abuse:	Specific safeguarding issues*: *For other specific safeguarding issues, please see Keeping Children Safe in Education
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical abuse • Emotional abuse • Sexual abuse • Neglect 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) • So-called 'honour based' violence, including Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) and Forced Marriage • Preventing radicalisation • Children missing education • Peer on peer abuse
For more information, including indicators, please refer to Appendix 3

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)

Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. Sexual abuse may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example, rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside clothing. It may include non-contact activities, such as involving children in the production of sexual images, forcing children to look at sexual images or watch sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways or grooming a child in preparation for abuse (including via the internet).

The definition of child sexual exploitation is as follows:

Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

Like all forms of child sexual abuse, child sexual exploitation:

- can affect any child or young person (male or female) under the age of 18 years, including 16 and 17 year olds who can legally consent to have sex;
- can still be abuse even if the sexual activity appears consensual;
- can include both contact (penetrative and non-penetrative acts) and non-contact sexual activity;
- can take place in person or via technology, or a combination of both;
- can involve force and/or enticement-based methods of compliance and may, or may not, be accompanied by violence or threats of violence;
- may occur without the child or young person's immediate knowledge (through others copying videos or images they have created and posting on social media, for example);
- can be perpetrated by individuals or groups, males or females, and children or adults. The abuse can be a one-off occurrence or a series of incidents over time, and range from opportunistic to complex organised abuse; and

- is typified by some form of power imbalance in favour of those perpetrating the abuse. Whilst age may be the most obvious, this power imbalance can also be due to a range of other factors including gender, sexual identity, cognitive ability, physical strength, status, and access to economic or other resources.

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM)

- FGM comprises all procedures involving partial or total removal of the external female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs for non-medical reasons.
- It is illegal in the UK and a form of child abuse with long-lasting harmful consequences.

Staff must inform the DSL immediately if they suspect a girl is at risk of FGM. By law, teachers must report to the police any 'known' cases of FGM in under 18s.

Preventing Radicalisation

Protecting children from the risk of radicalisation is seen as part of St Edmund's Girls' School's wider safeguarding duties, and is similar in nature to protecting children from other forms of harm and abuse.

During the process of radicalisation it is possible to intervene to prevent vulnerable people being radicalised.

Staff should use their judgement in identifying children who might be at risk of radicalisation and speak to the DSL in their school if they are concerned about a child. The DSL will act proportionately, which may include making a referral to the Channel programme or the MASH.

Children missing in education

A child going missing from education is a potential indicator of abuse and neglect. If a member of staff or volunteer becomes aware that a child is missing, or missing education, they need to report to the DSL immediately.

After reasonable attempts have been made to contact the family, we will follow the WSCB procedure and refer to the MASH team.

If a looked after child or a child subjected to a CP plan goes missing, we will refer them to the MASH team within 48 hours.

Unauthorised absence procedures will be followed where a child or young person:

- has 10 days or more continuous absence from school without an explanation and/or
- has left school suddenly and the destination is unknown and/or
- has not taken up an allocated school place as expected.

Any such concern will be reported to the Local Authority through the Education Welfare Service.

Schools will also refer to the MASH any child being withdrawn from school with the intent to be electively home educated where there are safeguarding concerns.

Allegations of abuse made against other children: peer on peer abuse

At St Edmund's Girls' School we believe that all children have a right to attend school and learn in a safe environment. Children should be free from harm by adults and from harm by other students in our schools.

Occasionally, safeguarding allegations may be made against children by others in the school(s).

This may include, but is not limited to:

- bullying (including cyber bullying, homophobic, biphobic and transphobic bullying)
- gender based violence/sexual assaults and
- sexting.

Staff should recognise that children are capable of abusing their peers. Abuse is abuse and should never be tolerated or passed off as "banter" or "part of growing up".

In order to minimise the risk of peer on peer abuse St Edmund's Girls' School operates a range of procedures, such as

- A no phone policy during school hours.
- Protected wi-fi access with a regular change of password.
- Members of staff on duty during non-teaching time, e.g. break, lunch & after school.
- Monitored email accounts, specifically designated to safeguarding
- Buddies whom students can approach to discuss concerns.
- Student access to staff to discuss concerns.

Allegations of peer on peer abuse will be dealt with by investigating in line with St Edmund's Girls' School's Behaviour policy. This will include:

- Allocating an appropriate member of staff to investigate, based upon the content of the allegation and relevance in terms of the member of staff's: experience, age, gender or expertise.
- If there is a safeguarding concern the DSL/DDSL should be informed, and will decide on any appropriate action.
- Parents will be informed of the incident unless this is not in the best interests of the child (see section 8 of this policy)

Outside agencies such as the police or social care will be informed if applicable. For example if a law has been broken or a child is at risk of harm.

- A written record will be made in line with advice from the record keeping section of this policy.

Support for victims of peer on peer abuse will be implemented based on the needs and wishes of the individual student, which may include:

- Peer support e.g. a buddy system.
- Time with Pastoral staff for supportive intervention. This may include work on positive self-esteem and managing anxiety.
- An outside agency referral.

4. Procedure for staff to report a concern about a child

St Edmund's Girls' School follows the procedure set out by the WSCB 'What to do' flowchart (see Appendix 4).

Where any adult in St Edmund's Girls' School has a concern about a child they should:

1. Report the concern to the DSL or DDSL at their school immediately. In their absence, staff members should speak directly to Children's Social Care (by contacting the MASH – see contact details on page 3 of this policy).

In some circumstances, the DSL or member of staff will seek advice from Children's Social Care by ringing the MASH to obtain advice.

It is not the responsibility of school staff to investigate safeguarding concerns or determine the truth of any disclosure or allegation. All staff and volunteers, however, have a duty to recognise concerns and inform the DSL immediately or one of the DDSLs in the DSLs absence.

2. Record the concern by completing a WSCB 'Welfare and Child Protection concern form' (see Appendix 6) and hand it in to the DSL. The records must be signed and dated. The DSL should include outcomes and any agreed action that is to be taken.

The DSL / DDSL will then decide on the best course of action and consider a referral to the MASH or Early Help (see section 15 for further information about Early Help).

Appendix 5 provides information about the actions taken by Children's Social Care when there are concerns about a child.

If a child's situation does not appear to be improving the staff member with concerns should press for re-consideration.

5. Record keeping of child protection concerns

St Edmund's Girls' School will:

- Keep clear written records of all child safeguarding and child protection concerns using the standard recording form, with a body map (see template in Appendix 6), including actions taken and outcomes as appropriate.
- Ensure all child safeguarding and child protection records are kept securely in a locked location. The record must be signed and dated and kept in a file under the child name (not family files), away from all the other records. The DSL is responsible for ensuring that concerns and discussions are written up properly and acted on appropriately.

An overview sheet and chronology forms are provided (see Appendix 6).

6. Responding to disclosures: guidance for staff

DO:

- ✓ Take the child to a private and safe place
- ✓ Stay calm
- ✓ Reassure the child and stress that he/she is not to blame and they were right to tell you
- ✓ Listen to the child and tell them that you believe them
- ✓ Tell the child that you have to speak to someone who can help to keep them safe (see confidentiality - Section 8 of this policy)
- ✓ Do not interview the child, keep questions to a minimum and encourage the child to use his/her own words: questioning should only include TED questions:
 Tell me Explain Describe
 Or use the mirroring technique:
 i.e. "My dad hit me last night"; respond by "Your dad hit you last night?"
- ✓ Record as soon as possible exactly what the child has said to you / what you have heard or what you saw, and any other relevant information.
- ✓ Immediately inform your DSL / DDSL (and nobody else) so that any appropriate action can be taken to protect the student if necessary.
- ✓ Dependent on the nature of the disclosure and how the child has presented a decision will be made based on the best interests of the child. This may include:
Resuming their day as normal, taking time out with the Pastoral Team or support from outside agencies e.g. Social Care or the Police.

DO NOT:

- ✗ Investigate the issue yourself
- ✗ Ask the child to write down what they said or repeat it to another adult
- ✗ Record the conversation on any device
- ✗ Ask another adult to witness their disclosure – the child has chosen to tell you.

7. Sharing concerns with parents and carers & Confidentiality

For more information, please refer to Information Sharing –Advice for practitioners providing safeguarding services to children, young people, parents and carers 2015.

St Edmund's Girls' School is committed to work in partnership with parents and carers and in most situations it may be appropriate to discuss initial concerns with them.

However there will be some circumstances where the DSL will not seek consent from the individual or their family, or inform them that the information will be shared.

For example, if doing so would:

- place a child at increased risk of significant harm;
- place an adult at increased risk of serious harm;
- prejudice the prevention, detection or prosecution of a serious crime;
- lead to unjustified delay in making enquiries about allegations of significant harm to a child, or serious harm to an adult.

Confidentiality

All staff need to understand that the only purpose of confidentiality is to benefit the student. No one should guarantee confidentiality to a student nor should they agree with a student to keep a secret, as any safeguarding/child protection concern must be reported to the DSL and may require further investigation by the appropriate authorities.

Staff will be informed of relevant information in respect of individual cases regarding safeguarding and child protection issues on a “need to know basis” only. Any information shared in this way must be held confidentially to themselves.

8. Managing allegations against adults

St Edmund’s Girls’ School follows the procedure set out by the WSCB ‘Allegations against adults’ flowchart (in Appendix 7). The flowchart is based on WSCB Allegations Management Policy.

Where anyone in St Edmund’s Girls’ School has a concern about the behaviour or an adult who works or volunteer at St Edmund’s Girls’ School, they must immediately consult the Headteacher who will refer to the Designated Officer For Allegations (DOFA):

Wiltshire Designated Officer For Allegations: 01225 713945

Any concern or allegation against the Headteacher will be reported to the Chair of Governors without informing the Headteacher.

Any allegation of abuse will be dealt with in a fair and consistent way that provides effective protection for the child and at the same time supports the person who is the subject of the allegation.

In some circumstances the member of staff will, without prejudice, be asked to take a period of paid leave pending the results of the investigation.

St Edmund’s Girls’ School will make every effort to maintain confidentiality and guard against unwanted publicity while an allegation is being investigated or considered.

Malicious allegations against staff will be investigated and dealt with by the Headteacher of the school and, if appropriate, a committee of governors.

If you have concerns about a colleague

Staff may worry that they have misunderstood the situation and they will wonder whether a report could jeopardise their colleague's career. All staff must remember that the welfare of a child is paramount.

If staff members have concerns about another staff member or volunteer then this should be reported immediately using the procedure described above.

9. Whistleblowing

Whilst the 'allegation management' procedure described above must be used when the behaviour of an adult causes a concern, all staff and volunteers should also feel able to raise concerns about poor or unsafe practice and potential failures in St Edmund's Girls' School safeguarding regime (or whistleblowing).

Please refer to St Edmund's Girls' School Whistleblowing Policy.

In line with advice within KCSiE 2016, concerns in relation to Safeguarding and Child Protection practice should be addressed to the Headteacher.

Where a staff member feels unable to raise an issue with the Headteacher of a school, or feels that their genuine concerns are not being addressed, other whistleblowing channels are open to them:

- The member of the Governing Board who is responsible for safeguarding (contact the Clerk clerk@st-edmunds.eu for his or her contact details).
- The NSPCC whistleblowing helpline is available for staff who do not feel able to raise concerns regarding child protection failures internally. Staff can call: 0800 028 0285 – line is available from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, Monday to Friday and Email: help@nspcc.org.uk.

10. Staff safeguarding training

St Edmund's Girls' School will ensure that all staff undergo safeguarding and child protection training at induction. The training will be updated every 3 years as a minimum.

In addition all staff members will receive regular safeguarding and child protection updates (for example, via email, e-bulletins, staff meetings) at least annually, to provide them with relevant skills and knowledge to safeguard children effectively.

11. Safer Recruitment

St Edmund's Girls' School sees safer recruitment as a vital process in ensuring our students are kept safe. Therefore, in line with Part 3 of Keeping Children Safe in Education, Every effort will be made to ensure the safe recruitment of staff and all legislation regarding safer recruitment will be followed. This will include:

- requiring a standardised application form;
- stating clearly on any advertisement or written information relating to employment our commitment to safeguarding children;
- requiring the Headteacher and relevant governors to have successfully completed the 'Safer Recruitment' online training, to be on any interview panel used to recruit staff and to pose relevant questions;
- validating as far as possible qualifications, experience and expertise;
- proactively verifying references and testimonials as far as possible;
- trainee teachers will also be subject to the checking procedures;
- verifying identity, preferably from current photographic ID and proof of address.
- verifying the right to work in the UK;
- examining all career breaks, sudden job changes and/or dismissals;
- St Edmund's Girls' School will take the necessary checks that the successful candidate is not subject to a prohibition order;
- the original DBS certificate must be presented and a barred list check will be sought;
- references will be sought on all short-list candidates, including internal ones, before interview;
- maintaining a single, central record of all staff. This will be updated with every new member of staff, supply staff and any volunteers. All supply staff will have the following information logged on the SCR:
 - whether the supply agency has carried out the relevant checks;
 - whether copies of appropriate certificates, including any enhanced DBS checks, have been provided.All of this information will be dated.
- disqualification under the 'Childcare Act 2006 (published in February 2015) is considered at every appointment.

12. Safer working practice

All members of staff and volunteers must have read, signed and understood St Edmund's Girls' School's Code of Conduct and, therefore, the Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy should be read in conjunction with the Code of Conduct.

13. Photography and images

Under no circumstances should staff be expected or allowed to use their personal equipment to take images of students at or on behalf of St Edmund's Girls' School.

Staff and volunteers should:

- Seek parental consent for photographs to be taken or published
- Only use school equipment
- Ensure that children are appropriately dressed
- Encourage children to tell us if they are worried about any photographs that are taken of them
- Only retain images when there is a clear and agreed purpose for doing so
- Store images in an appropriate secure place in St Edmund's Girls' School

Staff and volunteers should not:

- Take images in one to one situations
- Take images of students for their personal use

Where parents are taking photos of children at school events these are to be for personal use only (these are not to be shared on social media). Any misuse of photographs will be reported to the police and relevant organisations such as MASH.

14. Early Help

At St Edmund's Girls' School, whenever possible, we will ensure that early intervention is actioned via a referral to Early Help as soon as the criteria are met, to prevent situations to escalate into larger problems.

The Revised Multi-Agency Thresholds for Safeguarding Children (December 2014) document supports schools and other agencies about the suitable action to take when a child has been identified as making inadequate progress or having an unmet need.

Therefore St Edmund's Girls' School will consider the following:

- Undertaking an assessment of the need for early help;
- Providing early help services e.g. school nurse, pastoral worker, SENCO, family outreach worker, targeted youth, breakfast club;
- Referring to appropriate services e.g. CAMHS etc.

Early Help Single Point of Entry: 01225 718 230.

15. Children with Special Educational Needs or Disabilities (SEND)

St Edmund's Girls' School recognises that for a variety of reasons, children with additional needs face an increased risk of abuse and neglect; therefore adults are expected to take extra care to interpret correctly apparent signs of abuse or neglect. Indications of abuse will be reported as for other students.

Additional barriers can exist when recognising abuse and neglect in children with SEND. This can include:

- assumptions that indicators of possible abuse such as behaviour, mood and injury relate to the child's disability without further exploration;
- children with SEN and disabilities can be disproportionately impacted by things like bullying without outwardly showing any signs; and
- communication barriers and difficulties in overcoming these barriers.

We will provide a school environment in which students with SEND feel confident and able to discuss their concerns. Whenever possible, students will be given the chance to express themselves to a member of staff with appropriate communication skills; for example the Special Educational Needs & Disability Co-ordinator (SENDCo) or outside agencies where necessary. Additionally, the SENDCo will support the DSL to identify students with particular communication needs.

Wiltshire Council provides targeted support services for children with SEND who need additional support:

SEND Service: 01225 757 985.

16. Welcoming other professionals

Visitors with a professional role will have had the appropriate vetting checks undertaken by their own organisation. They should provide evidence of their professional role and employment details (an identity badge for example).

It is the responsibility of the member of staff organising irregular visitors to St Edmund's Girls' School to inform the Senior Leadership Team via appropriate paperwork at least one week prior to the event. This will include confirmation that a vetting procedure has taken place to ensure appropriate content, if applicable, is being delivered to the students. If necessary, the relevant member of staff that has organised the visit/event will contact the relevant organisation to verify the individual's identity.

Professionals will complete signing in/out forms, wear a school I.D. visitor's badge and be informed of the need to see the DSL/DDSL should they have a safeguarding concern about a student in the course of their visit.

17. Off-site visits

Appropriate risk assessments must be in place prior to any off-site visit taking place.

Any overnight visit will explicitly set out:

- sleeping arrangements;
- the role and responsibility of each adult, whether employed or volunteers
- on/off duty arrangements
- clear expectations about boundaries and interactions with children; and expectations around smoking/drinking by adult, i.e. none.

Safeguarding concerns or allegations should follow the procedure described above. The member of staff in charge of the visit will report any safeguarding concerns to the DSL and/or Headteacher, who will make a referral to the MASH or Designated Officer for Allegations (DOFA) if appropriate.

In an emergency the staff member in charge will contact the police and/or the MASH.

18. Policy review

This policy will be reviewed on an annual basis.

Appendix 1: The role of the Nominated Governor

Schools should appoint a Nominated Governor (NG) for safeguarding (or equivalent) to take leadership responsibility for the organisation's safeguarding arrangements.

This person's role is to ensure safeguarding is always a priority by:

- Championing child protection issues within the school and liaising with the DSL and the Headteacher and offering challenge if necessary
- Ensuring the Child Protection policy is checked for impact and reviewed yearly accordingly
- Auditing safeguarding measures annually alongside the DSL and the Headteacher using the Wiltshire Council annual school safeguarding audit return and reporting back to Full Governing Body
- Ensuring that all governors understand and comply with their statutory duty to provide the services of the school in a way that safeguards and promotes the welfare of pupils.

Appendix 2: The role of the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL)

The DSL is a senior member of staff, from the school leadership team, designated to take lead responsibility for:

- Managing all child protection issues (Headteacher/Principal leads on allegations against staff), including referring cases to the MASH, or to the Channel programme where there is a radicalisation concern
- Liaise with others within the school (Headteacher, Nominated Governor, staff and volunteers, parents)
- Support staff who make referrals to the MASH, or Channel programme
- Working in partnership with other agencies such as the local authority, MASH, police, Channel, Local Safeguarding Children Board
- Undertake training
- Raise awareness of safeguarding, by regularly review the safeguarding policy and procedures, ensure availability to staff and parents
- Induction of staff and volunteers/staff training/ensure staff are aware of safeguarding policy and procedure
- Maintain and transfer safeguarding files.

Information sharing –internal process

Information concerning students at risk of harm will be shared with all members of staff on a “need to know” basis. The DSL will make a judgement in each individual case about who needs and has a right to access particular information.

For more information about the role of the DSL (and DDSL), please refer to Annex B of KCSiE 2017.

Appendix 3: Indicators of abuse and neglect

What to do if you are worried a child is being abused 2015 provides definitions and indicators of the categories of abuse and neglect. Some of the signs below may be indicative of abuse:

Physical abuse:

- Children with frequent injuries;
- Children with unexplained or unusual fractures or broken bones; and
- Children with unexplained:
 - bruises or cuts;
 - burns or scalds; or
 - bite marks.

Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Physical abuse can also occur outside of the family environment.

Emotional abuse:

- Children who are excessively withdrawn, fearful, or anxious about doing something wrong;
- Parents or carers who withdraw their attention from their child, giving the child the 'cold shoulder';
- Parents or carers blaming their problems on their child; and
- Parents or carers who humiliate their child, for example, by name-calling or making negative comparisons.

Emotional abuse may involve serious bullying – including online bullying through social networks, online games or mobile phones – by a child's peers.

Sexual abuse:

- Children who display knowledge or interest in sexual acts inappropriate to their age;
- Children who use sexual language or have sexual knowledge that you wouldn't expect them to have;
- Children who ask others to behave sexually or play sexual games; and
- Children with physical sexual health problems, including soreness in the genital and anal areas, sexually transmitted infections or underage pregnancy.

You should be aware that many children and young people who are victims of sexual abuse do not recognise themselves as such.

A child may not understand what is happening and may not even understand that it is wrong.

Neglect:

- Children who are living in a home that is indisputably dirty or unsafe;
 - Children who are left hungry or dirty;
 - Children who are left without adequate clothing, e.g. not having a winter coat;
 - Children who are living in dangerous conditions, i.e. around drugs, alcohol or violence;
 - Children who are often angry, aggressive or self-harm;
 - Children who fail to receive basic health care; and
 - Parents who fail to seek medical treatment when their children are ill or are injured.
- Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal drug or alcohol abuse.

Children who are neglected often also suffer from other types of abuse.

Neglect may occur if a parent becomes physically or mentally unable to care for a child.

A parent may also have an addiction to alcohol or drugs, which could impair their ability to keep a child safe or result in them prioritising buying drugs, or alcohol, over food, clothing or warmth for the child.

Specific safeguarding issues: KCSIE 2016, Annex A provides definitions and indicators of specific safeguarding issues. Some of the signs below may be indicative of abuse:

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE):

- Children who appear with unexplained gifts or new possessions;
- Children who associate with other young people involved in exploitation;
- Children who have older boyfriends or girlfriends;
- Children who suffer from sexually transmitted infections or become pregnant;
- Children who suffer from changes in emotional well-being;
- Children who misuse drugs and alcohol;
- Children who go missing for periods of time or regularly come home late; and
- Children who regularly miss school or education or don't take part in education.

Female genital mutilation (FGM):

Indicators that a child or young person may be at risk of FGM:

- Knowing that the family belongs to a community in which FGM is practised and is making preparations for the child to take a holiday, arranging vaccinations or planning absence from school;
- The child may also talk about a special procedure/ceremony that is going to take place or a special occasion to 'become a woman'.

Professionals should note that girls at risk of FGM may not yet be aware of the practice or that it may be conducted on them, so sensitivity should always be shown when approaching the subject.

Indicators that FGM may already have occurred:

- Prolonged absence from school or other activities with noticeable behaviour change on return, possibly with bladder or menstrual problems;
- Difficulty walking, sitting or standing, and look uncomfortable;
- Spend longer than normal in the bathroom or toilet;
- May complain about pain between their legs, or talk of something somebody did to them that they are not allowed to talk about.

Preventing radicalisation:

Extremism can take several forms, including Islamist extremism and far-right extremism.

Radicalisation is the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and forms of extremism.

- There is no single way of identifying an individual who is likely to be susceptible to an extremist ideology.
- Specific background factors may contribute to vulnerability which are often combined with specific influences such as family, friends or online, and with specific needs for which an extremist or terrorist group may appear to provide an answer.
- The internet and the use of social media in particular has become a major factor in the radicalisation of young people.

As with other safeguarding risks, staff should be alert to changes in children's behaviour which could indicate that they may be in need of help or protection. Radicalisation of young people can be compared to grooming for sexual exploitation.

Early indicators may include:

- Vulnerability and social factors, such as:
 - family or local community tensions
 - low self-esteem
 - experience of poverty, disadvantage, discrimination, social exclusion / perception of injustice
- Access to extremist influences or showing sympathy for extremist causes
- Advocating messages similar to illegal organisations
- Evidence of accessing / possessing illegal or extremist material (including online)
- Justifying the use of violence to solve societal issues
- Pattern of regular or extended travel to locations known to be associated with extremism
- Significant changes to appearance, behaviour and peer relationships.

New Home Office e-learning tool, aimed at those with responsibilities under the Prevent duty, particularly front line staff in schools, has been developed to help raise awareness of radicalisation.

Private fostering

Under certain conditions, a child might be cared for, as part of a private arrangement, by someone who is not their parent or a 'close relative'. This constitutes private fostering when the following conditions are met:

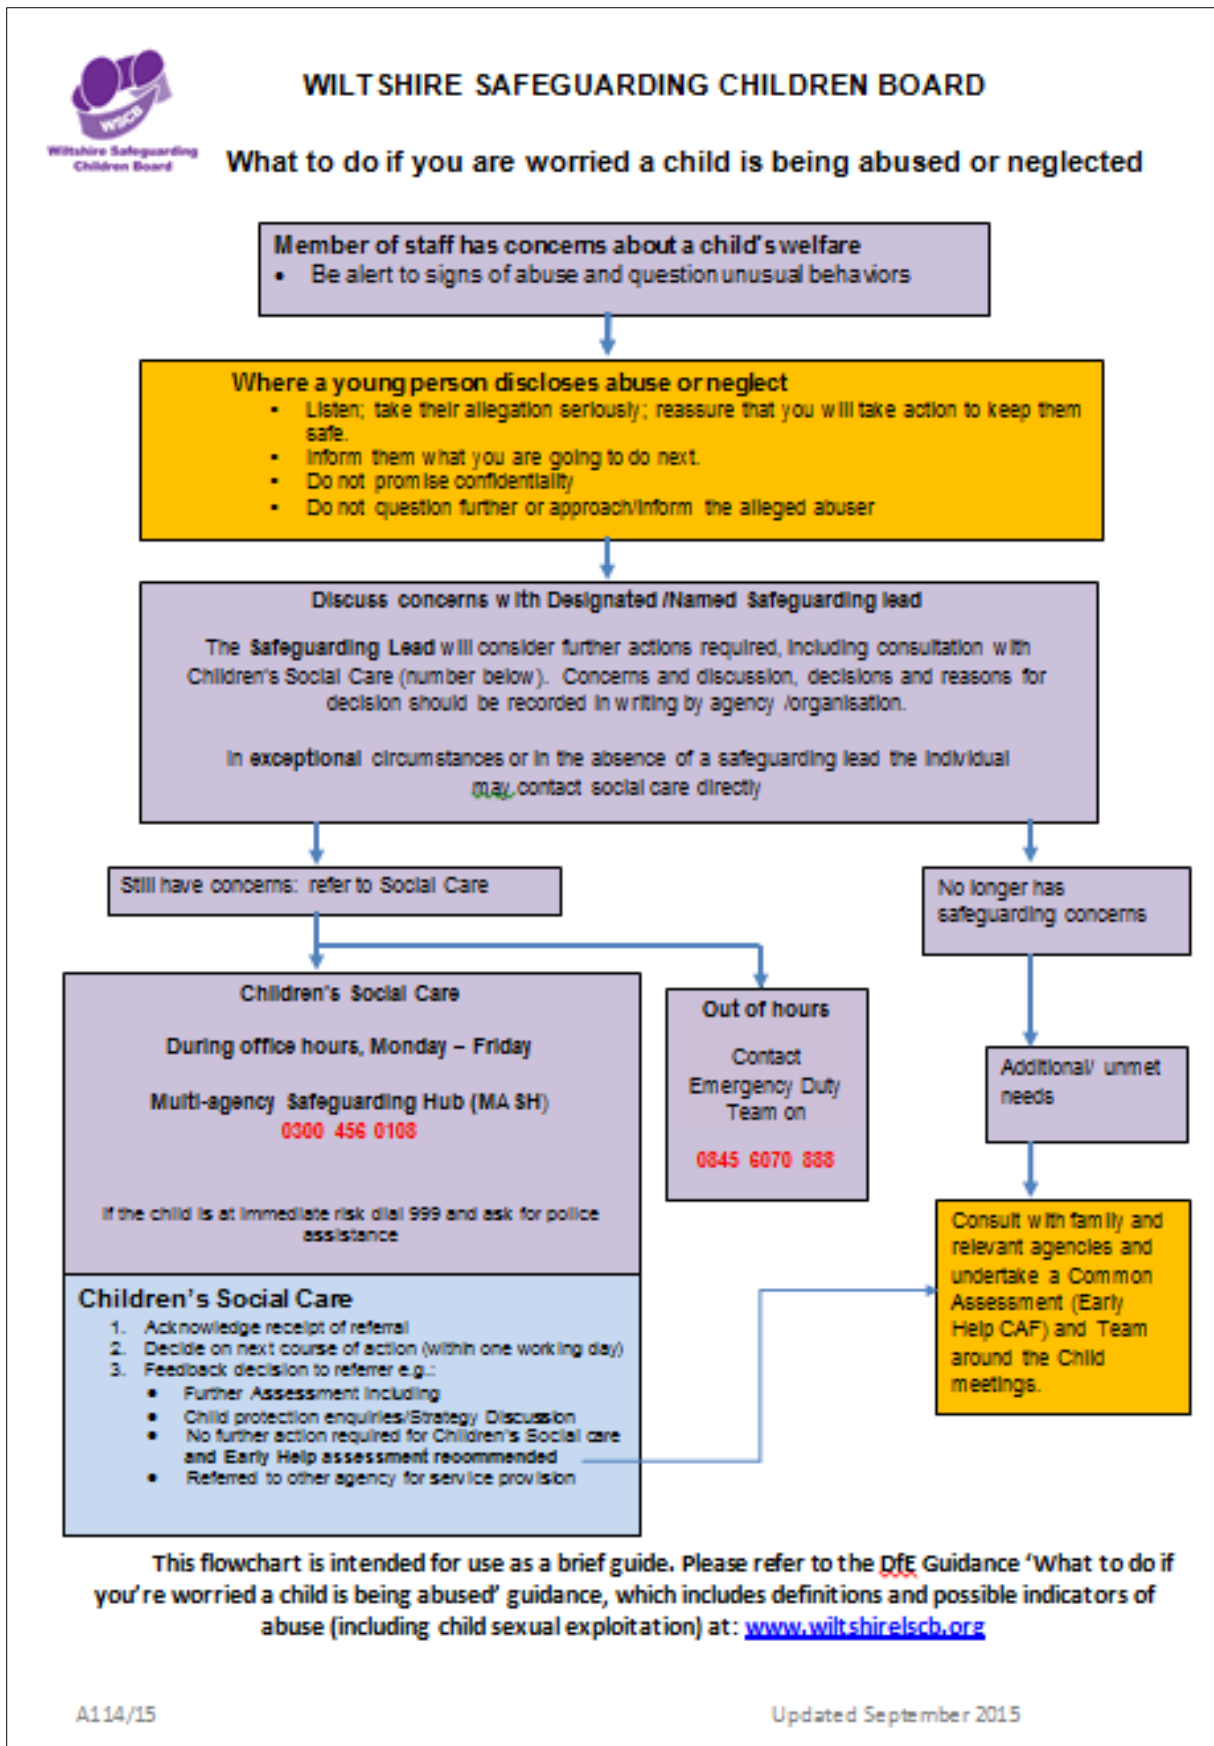

- a child is under 16 years of age – 18 if they have a disability
- the arrangement is for 28 days or longer
- the child's new carer does not have parental responsibility for the child and is not a close relative.

Close relatives are defined as step-parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles or aunts (whether of full blood, half blood or marriage/affinity).

By law parents and carers must notify the local authority of private fostering arrangements to safeguard and protect the child's welfare as well as ensuring the child, carer and parent are receiving appropriate support and help.

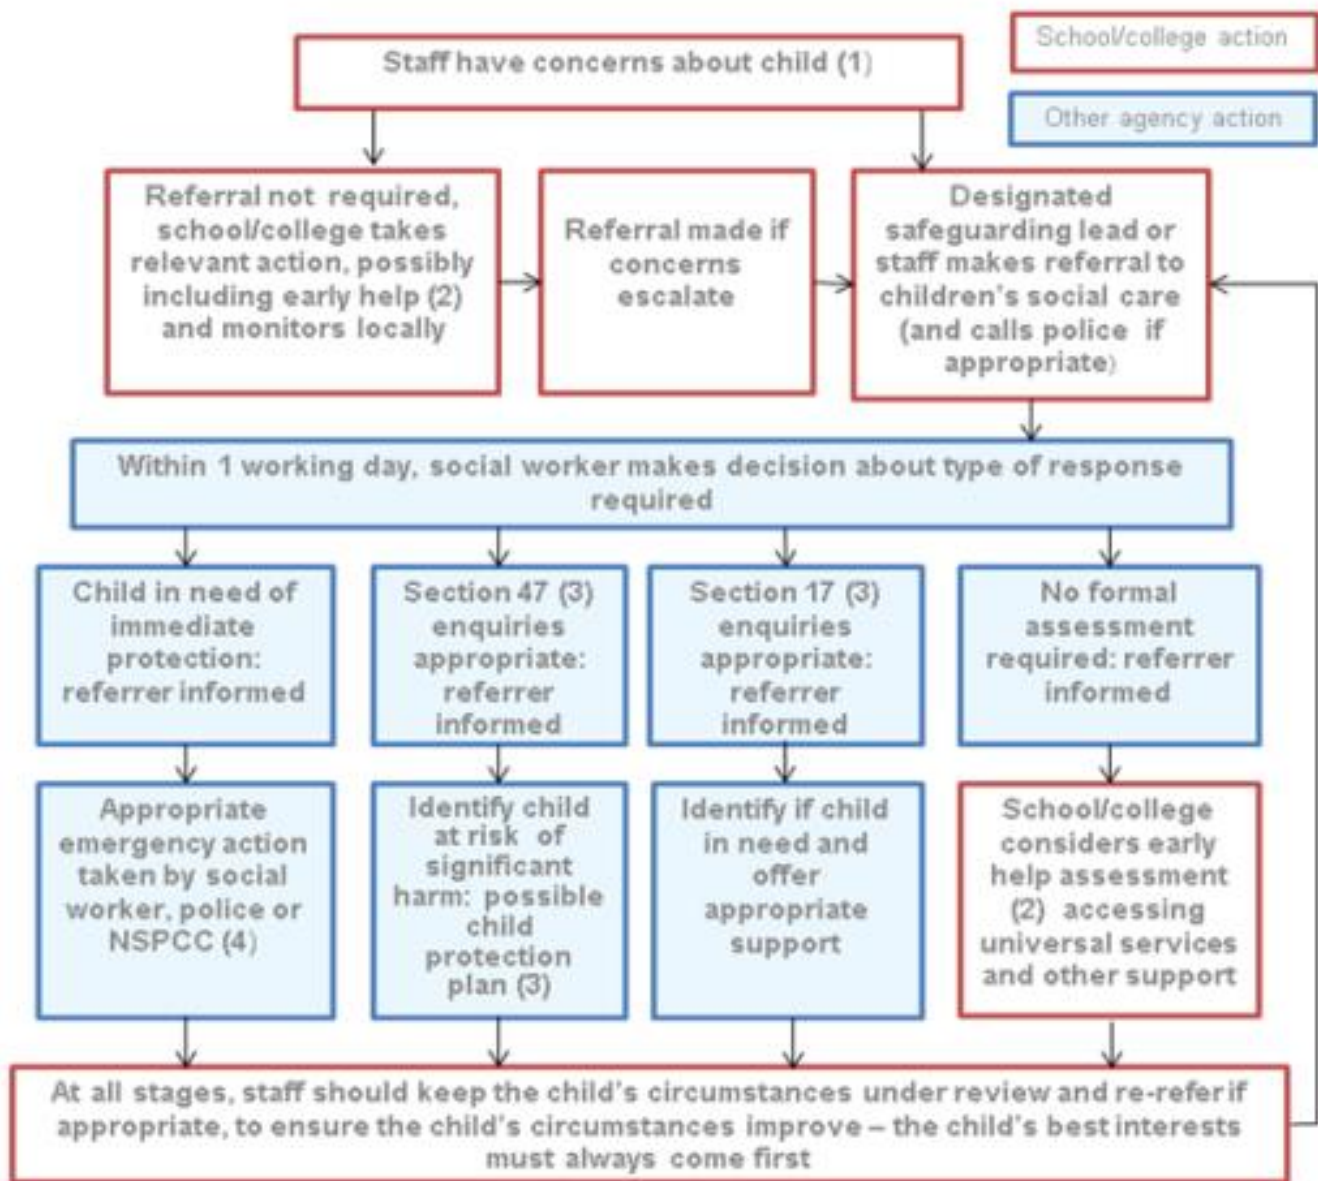

As a school, if we do become aware that a child or young person is being privately fostered, we will inform the carer/parent of their legal duty to notify Wiltshire Children's Social Care; we will follow this up by contacting Children's Social Care directly.

Appendix 5: Actions where there are concerns about a child

Diagram below is an extract from KCSiE 2016, p.10:

1. In cases which also involve an allegation of abuse against a staff member, see Part four of KCSiE.
2. Early help means providing support as soon as a problem emerges at any point in a child's life. Where a child would benefit from co-ordinated early help, an early help inter-agency assessment should be arranged. Chapter one of Working together to safeguard children provides detailed guidance on the early help process.
3. Under the Children Act 1989, local authorities are required to provide services for children in need for the purposes of safeguarding and promoting their welfare. This can include s17 assessments of children in need and s47 assessments of children at risk of significant harm. Full details are in Chapter one of Working together to safeguard children.
4. This could include applying for an Emergency Protection Order (EPO).
