January 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

Whole School Cathedral Service – Monday 25th February 2019

The Governors of Wyvern St Edmund's Learning Campus are delighted to inform you of our celebration service, taking place in Salisbury Cathedral on Monday 25th February. As Church schools, we wish to recognise formally the collaboration of the schools under one leadership with a coming together in an act of collective worship and celebration.

Students will walk from school to Salisbury Cathedral under the supervision of staff during the normal school day. After the service, all staff and students will walk back to school. Should your child not be able to walk to and from the Cathedral please supply a medical note that states the reasons for this.

Uniform requirement: full correct school uniform is to be worn.

Parental Consent: Please log in to your ParentPay account to give permission OR complete the permission slip overleaf and return to Mrs E Wells at Reception by Friday 8th February.

Medical and contact details: please complete any medical and contact information that may be required for the day either on ParentPay OR the slip overleaf.

Yours sincerely

C Smith
